

Patrick J. McFeely, Development Manager

EDUCATION

MBA, St. Bonaventure University, 2007
BS Urban Planning and Regional Analysis, Buffalo State College, 2001

AFFILIATIONS

Licensed Real Estate Salesperson, New York
Member NFPA (National Fire Protection Association)

EXPERIENCE SUMMARY

Mr. McFeely provides a wealth of knowledge in the commercial development industry primarily in construction and project management of new development and redevelopment opportunities. Mr. McFeely understands clients needs and works with and directs architects, engineers and contractors to push project deadlines and exceed the building owner / tenant expectations.

EMPLOYMENT SUMMARY

McGuire Development Company, LLC 2007 - present

As Development Manager, Mr. McFeely handles the project management for new/existing construction and owner representation initiatives. He serves as the project manager for all construction and capital projects. He handles management and oversight of the environmental services departments at The McGuire Group's skilled nursing and rehabilitation facilities in Western New York, Michigan and Brookhaven, New York. Mr. McFeely's most notable recent projects include: Catholic Charities - WIC, Mental Health and Nativity new construction projects, Autumn View Healthcare facility expansion, Episcopal Church expansion, new construction of Omni Pain and Wellness Center in Hamburg, Wehrle Professional Center new medical office building in Williamsville and construction of Derby Professional Park.

The McGuire Group 1994-2007

Prior to his appointment with McGuire Development, Pat worked as a member of the Dietary team at The McGuire Group's Autumn View Health Care Facility in Hamburg where he ensured quality of care through nutritional food preparation.

Trust Through Transparency

www.MCGUIREDEVELOPMENT.com